Fall 2023 College Scholarships Now Available for Local Youth Formerly in Foster Care

April 17, 2023 ~ Cleveland, OH: Child and Family Advocates of Cuyahoga County (CFACC) is pleased to announce that limited college scholarships for local youth formerly in foster care are once again available through the Kevin O'Boyle Memorial Scholarship Fund. The scholarship is now open for applications for the Fall 2023 academic term.

Kevin O'Boyle was a Cleveland native, St. Ignatius graduate, Cuyahoga County and Ohio CASA board member, and active CASA volunteer for 15+ years when he suddenly and unexpectedly passed away in June 2020. Kevin served as a Court Appointed Special Advocate volunteer with more than 20 older youth experiencing foster care in both Cleveland and Chicago, and guided many to higher education in his role as a CASA.

In honor of Kevin's legacy, CASA of Cuyahoga County offers need-based scholarship awards for up to four students for the fall 2023 academic term. Eligible students must be:

- currently enrolled in a post-secondary degree, community college, vocational training, or job certificate program in Cuyahoga County
- have a documentable foster child history of at least one year with CCDCFS
- have achieved 50% degree or program/certificate completion
- have documented financial needs based on the FAFSA filing and/or advisor recommendation concerning any unique financial circumstances
- referred by their school or program advisor

This scholarship is open only to former foster youth served by the Cuyahoga County Division of Children and Family Services and is limited to educational and job training services provided in Cuyahoga County.

The scholarship application and required reference & recommendation forms can be accessed at <https://cfadvocates.org/scholarship-fund/>. For additional questions about eligibility for the scholarship, please contact CASA of Cuyahoga County: info@cfadvocates.org or 216.325.7747.
